

General Ethical Decision-Making in your Practice considering Ethics and Law

February 19, 2010, 8AM-4PM

LOCATION: UNIVERSITY OF THE ROCKIES
555 East Pikes Peak Avenue Colorado Springs, CO 80903

An Intensive One-Day Workshop with Jim Oraker M.Div., Ph.D., Psychologist and Len Tamura, Ph.D., Psychologist

- Do you know best practice in teaching, assessment, and therapy?
- Are you acquainted with changes in the ethics code?

What You Will Gain:

This workshop will “go beyond the basics” in dealing with Intuition, Critical Evaluative and Ethical Principles: the foundation for Ethical Decisions.

This workshop presents ethical and legal issues confronting professionals serving the public. Topics ranging from clinical interventions, standards of practice, scope of practice, interdisciplinary relationships, integrated health-care, culture, diversity and institutional relations are explored. Participants will learn standard of care specified by state and federal law.

In addition: 20 pitfalls to be aware of in your practice:

1. Written Consent
2. Divulging Confidential Information
3. Disclosure Statement
4. Insurance Information
5. Patient’s Writing
